

雷軍奕感言

(2016年8月福州营)

这次中国寻根营真的是改变生活经历的一次体验，从来结识自美国各地的新朋友到参观精彩的历史遗迹。能够和来自纽约新泽西的新朋友交流是个多么好的事。刚开始我还有疑虑，要和许多比我小的营员在一起。出乎意料的是，我们在到第一个旅馆之前就开始有了交流。我们参加了很多有意思的活动，爬了山，徜徉在城市里、古迹中。我们还学了很多中国文化方面的内容。比如我从来茶文化有这么久远的历史和背景。我们对古中国茶的泡制的第一手的体验，以及我们学到的饮茶方式，都很令人回味。亲历中国文化确实比仅仅读书和文章给我的影响大得多得多。我对贫穷也有了进一步的认识，认识到我和那些美国的孩子们是多么幸运。最好玩的活动是昨天的漂流。我会用新奇一词来描绘这次夏令营。它让我看到了生活的很多不同的方面。在这过去的两周里，我学到了很多很多，总而言之这是一次极好的经历。

China camp has really been a life-changing experience for me. From meeting new friends that live all around the US, to the exhilarating historical sites we have visited. It's been an amazing social experience interacting with new friends from places like New York and New Jersey. At first I was skeptical, having most of the kids being younger than me. Surprisingly, we began to interact before even arriving at our first hotel. We went on many ravenous adventures, weather it was hiking up mountains, or just simple walks around the city and historical sites. Also, we have learned an exceptional amount about Chinese culture. I never knew that tea would have such a big history and background to it. Having a first hand experience of ancient Chinese tea preparation and learning how we were supposed to drink it was just fascinating. Experiencing the culture in person really makes much more of an impact than just reading about it in an article or textbook. I have gained a new level of knowledge for poverty, and now know how fortunate me and many blessed children in America are. The most interesting activity to me was when we went rafting yesterday. If I were to describe this camp in one word I would say it was novel. This trip showed me many different aspects of life. I have gained so much knowledge in these past couple weeks, and all in all has been just an amazing experience.
